Mission Statement

The Oahu Junior Golf Association (OJGA) an established non-profit organization was incorporated in 1966, continues to grow and serve the youth of Oahu. The OJGA is currently under the leadership of Mr. Norman Asao, President of the Association. The Officers and Board of Directors of the OJGA, with support from parents and the golfing community, are dedicated to providing increased opportunities in competitive golf for the children of Oahu.

The OJGA is administered by an all-volunteer Board of Directors whose main goals are:

- To introduce as many juniors as possible to the lifelong game of golf;
- To develop the junior golfer's knowledge, appreciation, and skill in the game of golf by conducting junior golf tournaments;
- To instill in each junior a sense of integrity and honor which are inherent to the game; including golf ethics and proper golf etiquette;
- To expose the juniors to the pride that comes with individual accomplishment and help them discover that through hard work, dedication and perseverance, they will build the character that will allow them to succeed and excel at whatever they pursue;
- To help all junior golfer achieve and understanding and appreciation for the rules of the games;
- Through playing on the OJGA tour, junior golfers meet others Worldwide and establish friendships that will last a lifetime.

Board of Directors

The Oahu Junior Golf Association (OJGA) is directed by its Board of Directors, which meets on the second Monday of each month, beginning at 6:30 p.m. All Board meetings are open to the general membership and anyone interested in attending a meeting may contact either the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the OJGA via email at oahujuniorgolf@gmail.com.

Elections for Board positions are held every December. Appointed by the President, an established Nominations Committee solicits nominations for positions from the membership in November. Votes are cast by way of secret ballots by the existing Board members and tallied by the Nominations Committee Chair.

The Board is always looking for dedicated volunteers willing to donate their talents and energies toward the improvement of our program for the benefit of the junior golfer. Please contact any Board member to share your ideas or to volunteer your talents.

Overview of Program

The OJGA Players' Tour is designated for the junior golfer with extensive course experience. The program consists of competitive tournaments only, with no swing mechanic lessons. Potential members wishing to enter the "Tour" must pass the OJGA Player's Ability Test (PAT) or produce a GHIN Handicap of 18 or lower. All returning OJGA members in good standing from the previous year may become a member the following year without testing.

Age of Eligibility

All OJGA members must be between the ages of seven (7) and eighteen (18) as of June 30, and not yet attending college. If not attending college, an 18 year old may play till the end of August.

If a member's birthdate falls between June 30 and July 12, he/she has the option to move up to the next age division at the start of the season, or he/she may complete the season in his/her present division. If a member's birthdate falls after June 30, he/she has the option to move up to the next age division on his/her birthdate or he/she may finish out the season in his/her present division. Once a Junior moves up in division, they will NOT be allowed to move back down. The junior moving up may not transfer Player Of The Year Points to the older division. For a Junior to move up on his/her birthdate in mid-season, a written parental request must be dated and received by the Tournament Director or any member of the Board at least 3 weeks prior to the tournament which the Junior is to move up in. A confirmation will be emailed to parent.

How Do I Become a Member?

Players' Ability Test (PAT)

New members must pass a PAT to gain entry into the OJGA's Players' Tour or possess a GHIN handicap of 18 or lower. All former members that choose to sit out for a year may be required to take another PAT or submit their under 18 Ghin Handicaps.

Generally, the dates for PATs will be designated by the volunteer PAT coordinator, presently Mr. Alan Kawada. Email us at oahujuniorgolf@gmail.com to set up a PAT for your child. At present, weekday 9-Hole PATS are being conducted at the Pearl Country Club.

OJGA Membership Fees

The membership fee for the program starting in February and ending in December is $125.00 per individual

Parent participation is critical to the success of our program and volunteers are needed throughout the year.

Fundraisers

The major fundraising event for the year is the Annual OJGA fundraising golf tournament which is held at the Pearl Country Club in March. Notice will be sent via email.

This tournament hosts a maximum of 72 teams in a three-man scramble format. The success of this event depends on each member's support. It is suggested that members help to solicit teams, prizes, donations and manpower for the tournament. Please mark your calendars and sign up to help today.

Additional fundraising events may be held throughout the year during tournaments sponsored by other organizations that have invited the OJGA to participate.

Fundraiser Proceeds

OJGA is no different from any other non-profit youth organization where fundraisers are needed to help defray the various program costs not covered by its membership fees.

- Proceeds to offset tournaments, administration fees, awards and travels.

Responsibilities of the Parents

The OJGA requires 100% parent/family participation. The OJGA is a non-profit organization that depends solely on volunteers. You do not have to be a golfer to volunteer and support this program, but it is strongly recommended that you assist with volunteer program operations. There are a number of areas where OJGA can utilize your skills.

All parents/guardians/guests/volunteers shall comply with the code of conduct and dress code. Parents/guardians/guests/volunteers shall conduct themselves in a manner that is not detrimental to OJGA, its members, and the host facilities.

10-Under Parents are required to be at the course at all times.

In addition, the OJGA has standing committees to handle other operational functions of the Association. The following is a list of committees where your talents and resources can be utilized:

Ethics Committee: Facilitates all disciplinary actions through incident report issued by Tournament Directors. Reviews and makes judicial decisions. Maintain records of all infractions.

Public and Community Relations Committee: Maintains the OJGA website. Also coordinates and handles duties relating to the image and communication of the OJGA to the general public.

Tournament Schedule Committee: Coordinates all tournaments for the year.

Manpower Committee: Coordinates all aspects of securing volunteers to insure the strength of OJGA. Solicit participation from members and their parents to support the OJGA needs.

Accoutrements Committee: Coordinates the "outfitting" of all members. Outfitting includes the sizing, ordering and distribution of collared shirts, and golf towels.

Fund Raising Committee: Coordinates all aspects of the tournament operations, including establishment of sub-committees, applications, donations, banquet, special events, etc.

Par 3 Fund Raising Committee: Coordinates all aspects of the closest-to-the-pin fundraising contests including refreshments, prizes, and contest format.

Banquet Committee: Coordinates all aspects of the end of season banquet including graduation program, awards, invitations, graduate slide show, RSVP, etc.

Nominations Committee: Coordinates the nomination of persons to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors and conducts annual elections in December of each year.

Tournament Committee: Committee members include the Tournament Directors, Officers, and President.

Registrar: Responsible for master membership roster and updates.

Responsibilities of the Junior Golfer

In order to promote the high character expectations of the OJGA, each member, and his/her parents, must comply and adhere to the code of conduct adopted by the Board of Directors.

Each member, and his/her parents, of the OJGA must abide by the adopted dress code at all OJGA functions. These functions include but are not limited to tournaments, fundraisers, clinics and banquet.

OJGA encourages all junior golfers to perform community service acts in order to develop an appreciation and concern for others. If an opportunity arises for community service, it will be announced through the Tournament Director via e-mail or those needing community service points may write to the OJGA website for availability.

*Registration and payment of green fees are required prior to each and every tournament. Each junior is responsible for submission of any tournament applications within the time deadlines established. Tee times are based on a first come first served entry. Entries past deadline may be accepted on a space availability basis along with an additional $25 late fee.

Additional information and/or notices of information changes (e.g., tournament schedules, etc.) are either announced at tournaments, sent via e-mail, or posted on the website. It is the responsibility of each junior to check the tournament schedule on the website or to follow up with the Tournament Director at each tournament and for communicating any posted or announced information to their parents or guardians. We encourage you to establish a connection with another junior golfer so that you may receive important information despite your inability to attend a scheduled tournament, or not having access to e-mail/internet.

OJGA Dress Code

OJGA's junior golfers shall abide by the following dress code standard at all OJGA sanctioned activities. Proper attire is required for Parents and Juniors at ALL times at the host facility. Should a host facility impose a more stringent dress code, its policy will take precedence. The dress code shall be in effect from the time you leave your vehicle in the parking lot until the time you return to your vehicle to depart from the premises where the OJGA function is being held.

Juniors in violation of the dress code will not be allowed to participate in the tournament as determined by the Tournament Committee.

Required Dress:

OJGA Issued collared shirts ONLY, will be worn by juniors;

Parents, Collared Shirts and covered shoes are REQUIRED (need not be tucked in), NO T-Shirts, Spaghetti straps, tank tops or Slippers Allowed!

- PARENTS Crew necked t-shirts, mock turtle neck, tank tops, halter-tops or/ crop tops will not be allowed.
- Belts shall be worn if trousers or shorts have belt loops sewn on them.
- Hair shall be neat and well groomed.
- Pants shall be worn in appropriate size and fit. Short-shorts, saggy or/baggy trousers or/ shorts will not be allowed.
- Shorts/Skorts no shorter than 4 inches above the kneecap are required.

- All types of hats or/ visors, when used must be worn properly at all times - with brim forward and should be removed before entering the clubhouse.
- Boys must remove any earrings.
- All facial pierced jewelry is prohibited.

OJGA Ethics Committee and the Code of Conduct

As stated on page 1: The Oahu Junior Golf Association's Board has the right to accept or reject any membership or tournament application.

Any Code of Conduct violations will result in an incident report being issued to the player and/or his/or her parent or guardian. The parent/or guardian will receive a copy of the incident report. The OJGA Board of Directors and/or Ethics Committee may assess any or all of the applicable penalties based on the severity and frequency of the violation(s).

It is important to note that all violations will be carried forward for each year that the junior is in the OJGA program. Example: If a junior has three (3) Category III violations in prior years, the next violation will result in expulsion from the OJGA.

When a violation in the Code of Conduct results in expulsion from the OJGA parents or/ guardians and the junior will be given the option of an appeal conference with the Board of Directors. The Board will make a final determination. Any junior who has been expelled from the OJGA will not be eligible for post-season honors.

OJGA Code of Conduct

The Oahu Junior Golf Association (OJGA) takes great pride in the quality of its junior participants and host facilities at each tournament. In order to continue making OJGA tournaments enjoyable for everyone, the OJGA requires all members, parents or/ guardians and guests to adhere to a set of guidelines known as the Code -of -Conduct.

Purpose: Its purpose is to help OJGA participants grow and mature by understanding and accepting the consequences of their actions.

The Code of Conduct is to be followed throughout the junior golfer's membership in the Oahu Junior Golf Association. It also applies to their parents or/ guardians and guests for the duration of the junior participants membership in the OJGA

Note: Where appropriate, "Participants" – means OJGA Junior golfers, parents/guardians and guests.

1. Participants shall conduct themselves as "ladies" and "gentlemen" while on the course and in or around the clubhouse and other golf course grounds. Un-sportsmanlike conduct, including but not limited to, abusive language, disrespect to volunteers, officials and/or fellow competitors, club throwing or vandalism of golf course property will not be tolerated.
2. Play shall be governed by the USGA Rules of Golf. Any local and/or special tournament rules will be announced and/or posted at the tournament site.
3. Spectators (i.e., parents, relatives, friends, etc.) may not accompany a junior participant during tournament play.
4. Spectators (i.e., parents, relatives, friends, etc.) in the 10-Under division may not accompany their junior during tournament play. Parents from the 10-Under division are required to be at the course at all times for the safety of your child. If deemed necessary by the Board of Directors, this policy may also apply to the 11-12 division.
5. Cellular phones may be carried by participants for 1. Emergency use and 2. Call check in desk for a rules official. Phones should be placed on vibrate. Cellular phones and any other electronic devices (e.g. games, i-pods, etc.) may not be used during a stipulated round except for #1 & #2 or until the competitor has returned his score card to the Committee after completion of the round (completion of the round:

after the Jr. has left the Official scoring area) unless an emergency exists.

If a Rules official is needed, do not call your parent to get one. All calls should be directed to the check in desk and assistant tournament directors.

6. Notice: In accordance with the USGA Rules, effective July 1, 2014, the use of a device SOLELY MEASURING DISTANCE will be allowed at all Oahu Junior Golf Association's sponsored Tournaments. Multi-function devices with multiple applications such as smart phones, watches and tablets are not permissible.
7. A participant may not use a caddie or motorized cart in any event. Hand-cart/pull-carts are permissible.
8. Participants shall abide by the OJGA Dress Code at ALL OJGA sponsored functions.
9. PACE OF PLAY: (Rule 6-7 Undue Delay) All players are asked to finish their round in 4 ½ hours or less.

Please Keep up with the group in front of you. You are deemed to be out of position if there is more than a one (1) hole opening in front of your group AND your group is beyond your allotted time.

1 st offense: Warning- YELLOW CARD	3 rd offense: 2 stroke penalty-RED Card
2 nd offense: 1 stroke penalty- RED CARD	4 th offense: Disqualification-RED Card

10. All scoring rulings or rule information must be reported to the tournament official(s) before the scorecard is attested. Each junior participant must perform his responsibility to the field by reporting any rule infraction. Junior participants are reminded that under USGA Rule No. 1-3, no junior participant may exclude the operation of a rule or waive any penalty incurred.

11. If a participant is unable to compete in an event that he/she has registered to play in, the junior participant shall notify the tournament chairperson via e-mail (time and date stamped) no later than one (1) week prior to a scheduled tournament. Applicable fees will not be refunded for cancellations made after the (1) week deadline.

All spectators/parents/guardians/guests/volunteers shall comply with the Code of Conduct and Dress Code. Parents/guardians/guests/volunteers shall conduct themselves in a manner that is not detrimental to OJGA, its members and the host facilities.

Division 15-18 Boys

- Back Tees
- Participants should check in at registration and be at their designated tee box 10 minutes prior to starting time.

Additional Division Rules

Outside food or drinks are not allowed per Host Golf Course. Juniors & Parents should patronize golf course food establishments.

Parents/guardian (including golf teacher/coach) cannot talk "golf" with their child or give advice after tee-off, on the turn or and before score attestation is completed.

Juniors must remain in the immediate vicinity of the tournament committee until his/her score is posted.

Each Player will be responsible for their own awards. If you are unable to pick up, YOU will need to make arrangements for its retrieval on tournament day.

Green Fees and Tournament Fees

Green fees are generally determined by the board and parents will be responsible for the online credit card charge. These fees are in addition to the membership fees and are normally payable upon application for a scheduled tournament. Juniors must also bring their municipal or military golf ID's to the courses if required. Non-compliance may result in a non-resident green fee or even a rejection from the golf course. Green fees for Match Play (if applicable) rounds are payable as the junior advances through the matches. OJGA reserves the right to assess a tournament fee in addition to green fees to cover unusual tournament expenses (i.e. glowball, facility fees, etc.).

Tournament Registration

Entry into each and every OJGA tournament must be made by way of the OJGA Players' Tour Tournament Application. Completed application and payment of any fees must be made online through the OJGA webpage at www.ojga.org. Tournament slots are limited by the availability of tee times at the host course and are filled on a "first come, first served" basis.

Waitlist Policy

If play slots are filled prior to receipt of your tournament application, you will be notified via e-mail that you have been wait listed. Wait lists are compiled in the order of the date the application is received. Wait listed players are notified via e-mail for an open spot. All waitlisted players also have the option to "stand-by" at the golf course on day of the tournament. But if you have missed the deadline, then you will not be allowed to stand-by or be waitlisted. Before the deadline...waitlisted players will be added to the field in the order of entry. After the deadline...a vacant spot will be filled by the first player on the waitlist in the same age division. For example, if a 10-Under Boy withdraws, the next 10-Under Boy on the waitlist will fill that vacant spot. If no player is available on the on the waitlist to fill that vacant 10-Under Boys spot then that spot will remain vacant. Player entries accepted after the deadline on a space availability basis will be processed with a late fee of $25.

Withdrawal Policy

A $3 processing fee will be charged for ALL cancellations/withdrawals for a tournament. Cancellations done 1 week prior to a tournament will result in the retention by OJGA of ALL fees paid. All players must notify the Tournament Director of their inability to play in any event they have registered for, no later than one week prior to the start of the event. A player must also log back in and follow the instructions for withdrawal. Failure to do so will be counted as a "No Show" and will result in the issuance of an incident report and retention by OJGA of ALL fees paid. If there is an emergency due to illness, please email us so that we can note courtesy of not showing.

Tournament Schedule

A schedule of all tournaments will be posted on the OJGA website at OJGA.org. Tournament dates and times are subject to change. Players will be notified by way of the website. It will be your responsibility to check the website on a regular basis.

Tournament Day

Breaking of Ties

Please refer to USGA rule book.

Pace of Play

Players must keep pace with the group ahead of them. Should a group start to fall back, it is recommended that the group forego the Honors system and play "ready golf" until the gap is closed. Pace of Play penalties as contained in the Notice To Competitor shall be strictly enforced.

Rulings

OJGA Rules Officials are designated at each tournament. In the event of a question as to ruling or procedure and a Rules Official is not readily available, Participant should proceed to play two balls, but must declare which ball he wishes to score with if the rules allow. Declaration must be made prior to making a stroke on either ball. The score for each ball should be recorded and scorer and player must consult a Rules Official prior to the signing of the scorecard. Unavailability of a Rules Official will not constitute a valid reason for slow play. Walking scorers may not give rulings.

Parent Volunteers

Parent/guardian participation as volunteers at tournaments are vital to the success of our tournaments. Volunteers are needed to assist with tournament operations throughout the season. Assistance is required for Player Assistants, Photography, Walking Scorers, Registration, Scoreboard, Statisticians, Starters and other duties as needed. Parent(s)/guardian(s) who decline to assist as a tournament volunteer may jeopardize their child's participation in a scheduled tournament, and/or risk having their membership revoked. It is a MANDATORY requirement of membership that ALL Jrs. and parents are required to help with volunteer duties, Notification of duties will be emailed after pairings are assigned.

Tee Time Assignments

It is the responsibility of each player to check the OJGA website prior to the scheduled OJGA tournament for his or her assigned tee time. Each player MUST check-in with the OJGA registration table at the tournament site at least 30-minutes prior to assigned tee time and should report to their starting tee at least 10 minutes prior to their assigned tee time. The player must start at the time established by the committee. If the player arrives at his starting point, ready to play, within 5 minutes after his starting time, the penalty for failure to start on time is 2 strokes at the first hole in stroke play or loss of the first hole in match play. Otherwise the penalty for breach of this rule is disqualification RULE 6-3a
